As an artist and family historian, I use artwork, video and text to explore stories of family, cultural and community history. Memory is my material, imagination my lens.

Projects

2011-present The Jewish Identity & Legacy Project / We Spoke Jewish

A four-stage project exploring identity and legacy among a largely immigrant population:

1) interviewed Jewish elders and their families, 2) developed artwork and video around these stories, 3) art exhibitions and public speaking and 4) published a book of artwork and oral history in 2017 titled We Spoke Jewish: A Legacy in Stories. Those interviewed spanned those raised in early MN immigrant communities, survivors, and immigrants from the former Soviet Union.

Interviews and book were funded by the Minnesota Historical Society with funds from the State of MN Arts & Cultural Heritage Fund. Interviews were sponsored by Sholom and the Jewish Historical Society of the Upper Midwest (JHSUM) and the book was published by JHSUM.

2012-18 Jewish Artists' Lab –Writer Residency– Sabes JCC, Minneapolis, MN

Participant in initiative of the Sabes JCC of artists exploring selected themes through study and art making. Participant in annual group exhibition. Resident Writer 2013-2018.

2012 Artist Residency – Bet Shalom, Minnetonka, MN

Exhibition of three series of work on the Holocaust, lost Jewish communities and identity and legacy. Developed programming for different groups including a series of talks with congregants, students and the public. Programming included video, artwork, teaching and lectures.

2010-11 A Hole in Time: The Former Jewish Community of Radom, Poland

Coordinated a body of my artwork on my ancestral town with the pre-war and war-time photos of a Twin Cities survivor of that community. Created a series of interviews with her, later published in Poland and on-line. Developed accompanying text for selected photos and traveled with survivor to Poland for the exhibition where we spoke about the Jewish history of the town. Together have given many talks in conjunction with exhibitions of related work. In 2014, I began a series of paintings based on her stories.
